

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

NICHOLAS HACHENEY,

Petitioner,

v.

MIKE OBENLAND,

Respondent.

CASE NO. 3:15-CV-05492-RBL-
DWC

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO COMPEL

This is a federal habeas action filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. See Dkt. 1. Currently before the Court is Petitioner's Motion to Compel Production of Relevant Exhibits from the State Court Record ("Petitioner's Motion"). Dkt. 24. Respondent has filed a Response to Petitioner's Motion. Dkt. 29. Petitioner has not filed a reply.

DISCUSSION

Petitioner filed a habeas corpus petition challenging his conviction of first degree murder. Dkt. 1. Respondent filed his Answer and submitted the relevant state court record. Dkts. 20, 21. Petitioner then filed this Motion, seeking a court order directing Respondent to produce additional exhibits from the state court record. Dkt. 24. Petitioner seeks to compel the following trial exhibits: 9 (video tape of fire burn test); 12 (stipulation); 323 (state toxicology report); 470 (video of fire

1 testing); and 471A (photographs). Id. In addition, Petition seeks production of the electronic
2 media submitted to the Washington Court of Appeals in support of his Personal Restraint
3 Petition, the items submitted as Appendix D, which included video and photographs. Id.

4 Respondent has now submitted a supplemental state court record, which includes Exhibit 12
5 (stipulation) and Appendix D to Petitioner's Personal Restraint Petition. Dkts. 27, 28, 29. Exhibit
6 323 (state toxicology report) was already included in the state court record. See Dkt. 29; Dkt. 21,
7 Exhibit 31 at Appendix B. In Response to Petitioner's Motion, Respondent argues the remaining
8 documents (Exhibits 9, 470 and 471A) were not before the Washington Court of Appeals or the 9 Washington Supreme Court on direct appeal or in the personal restraint proceedings, therefore,
10 those documents are not relevant to this Petition. Dkt. 29 at 2-3 (citing Cullen v. Pinholster, 131 11 S.Ct. 1388, 1398 (2011)).

12 Rule 5 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 and 2255 Cases provides Respondent must 13 attach to the answer including, parts of the transcript Respondent considers relevant, any brief
14 submitted by Petitioner or the prosecution in an appellate court contesting the conviction or 15 sentence, and opinions and dispositive orders of the appellate court relating to the conviction or 16 sentence. Based on the supplemental exhibits provided by Respondent, Respondent has now
17 provided the Court with all of the documents he considers relevant to this Petition in accordance 18 with Rule 5.

19 Petitioner contends the remaining documents, Exhibits 9, 470, and 471A, are relevant
20 because they relate to Petitioner's Sixth Amendment claims. However, Exhibits 9, 470, 471A were 21 submitted to the trial court, but it appears they were not before the Washington Court of Appeals or 22 Washington Supreme Court on direct appeal or in Petitioner's personal restraint proceedings. See

1 Dkt. 29. Thus, the Court finds Petitioner has not shown how these documents are relevant to this
2 Petition.

3 The Court also notes although Rule 5 of the Rules Governing Section 2254 and 2255 Cases
4 provides the Court may order the Respondent to provide the relevant state court record, the Supreme
5 Court has held § 2254 limits the factual scope of review to the evidence that was before the state
6 court at the time the state court adjudicated the merits of the claim. Cullen v. Pinholster, 131 S.Ct.
7 1388 (2011).

8 Section 2254(d)(1) refers, in the past tense, to a state-court adjudication that
9 “resulted in” a decision that was contrary to, or “involved” an unreasonable
10 application of, established law. This backward-looking language requires an 11 examination of the state-court decision at the time it was made. It follows that the 12 record under review is limited to the record in existence at that same time i.e., the 13 record before the state court.

14 Id. at 1398. “If a claim has been adjudicated on the merits by a state court, a federal habeas
15 petitioner must overcome the limitation of § 2254(d)(1) on the record that was before that state
16 court.” Id. at 1400.

17 Accordingly, the Court denies Petitioner’s Motion (Dkt. 24) without prejudice. In addition,
18 based on the supplemental state court record filed by Respondent, see Dkts. 27, 28, Respondent may 19 file a motion within seven (7) days of the entry of this order to supplement his Original Answer
20 (Dkt. 20). If Respondent declines to file such a motion, this case will proceed on Respondent’s
21 Original Answer (Dkt. 20).

22 Dated this 31st day of March, 2016.
